Bockholmen - 2020

I remember the first time I came to Madrid; it was in the beginning of 1990's and I was interrailing. I stood alone and bought a sandwich. A simple piece of bread with serrano ham. I didn't know what it was, but it was incredible. The simplicity and the rich taste from that single sandwich has influenced my whole cooking. It comes from the heart, I want to do something simple, tasty and as great as possible for our guests. A table filled with plates and glasses, some red wine left from the main course, a glass of grappa and coffee. Desserts on their way in, main courses on their way out. A great atmosphere. A night that never ends. That's the way we want you to feel at our restaurants.
